

①

NAME -> GARVIT TYAGI

SEC -> K

Roll No -> 1918831 / 22

SUBJECT -> CLOUD COMPUTING

Q3

Step 1: Open the Github account

Step 2: Click the new repository button in the top-right. you will have an option there to initialize the repository with a README file

Step 3: Click the "Create repository" button

Step 4: On the main page of the repository

Step 5: Above the list of the files, using the Add file drop-down, click upload files.

Step 6: Choose the file which you want to upload on this repository

Step 7: At the bottom of the page click on the commit change. your file will be uploaded.

Chy

(2)

Step 8: Name the repository ~~MyApp~~ ~~Others~~
~~Application~~ with name `github.io`.

Step 9: Move your website files into the folder that Github just created when you made the repository.

Step 10: Back in the Github application, you should see your files in the left column.

Step 11: Click on the commit button.

Step 12: Click the ~~Public~~ repository on the top right corner.

Step 13: Give it about 10 minutes then check your username. `github.io`. Your file should be there.

Chyegi

